Chapter 1 by Sam I am

On a rainy summer day, a young teenage boy named Eric was walking along the side of the strip mall close to his house. On his walk, he looks into the window and sees a small painting that captures his attention. He quickly checks his wallet and finds some cash. Next, he walks into the store and walks straight to the painting.

"How may I help you sir?" asks one of the workers asked him.

"Oh um... How much is this painting?" Eric asks in wonder of where the price tag is.

"Oh this painting isn't for sale... But I know one thing." The worker looks him up and down and grins sharply. Eric looks at the worker named Peter in pure confusion. The next thing he knows, Eric's world goes completely black and the only sound is the echoing sound of Peter's maniacal voice saying "How much are you?"
